MEDIA VISIT – On 3rd April I hosted a French journalist, Jerome Saglio who is working with Michelin publishing group in Paris, France. They are preparing a new Guide Vert Michelin travel guide on Australia, to be launched in March 2018 and the publication will be released in French (France, Belgium, Switzerland and Quebec) and translations into English, Chinese and Spanish should follow. Jerome arrived in Kuranda aboard Skyrail

Rainforest Cableway, and visited KKG, BWK, ABS, Kuranda Markets and had lunch at RFS with Ben Woodward who hosted the afternoon.

KURANDA EASTER CELEBRATIONS - Our Kuranda Easter Celebration drew another big crowd into the village Easter Saturday and from all reports it was another successful event for Kuranda. While our Easter Celebration acts as an economic boost for many businesses in the village, it is also designed to profile Kuranda and target locals - reconnecting with this important market. A considerable amount of activity happens behind the scenes to co-ordinate an event like the Kuranda Easter Celebration and I would like to thank the following people and organisations;

- Cathy Harvey, Cr. Lenore Wyatt and all the Kuranda Visitor Information Centre volunteers who helped throughout the day.
- John Baskerville and the team at Kuranda SES for helping with setting up and safety in Centenary Park.
- Mareeba Shire Council for their in-kind support with additional rubbish bins, marquees, witches hats and event co-ordination.
- Tim Riley for his amazing whip cracking performance.
- All the local businesses that provided prize donations for all the kid's games in Centenary Park.
- The Easter Bunny volunteers – Cathy Harvey and Claude Burnside.
- Pamagirri Aboriginal Dancers from Rainforestation for their performance.

FREE MEDIA EXPOSURE – Through our branded advertising campaign we were also able to secure substantial free pre and post media exposure that included

- Tablelands Advertiser – Front Page Feature (pre-event)
- Kuranda Paper – (pre-event)
- The Express – Front Page (pre-event)
- Cairns Post – Half Page (pre-event)
- Tablelands Advertiser – ¼ page feature (pre-event)
- Tablelands Advertiser – Front Page Feature (post-event)
- Cairns Post – half page feature on page 9 – (post-event)
- Cairns EYE – Half page feature (pre-event)
- Cairns EYE – Full Page Out & About Event photos (post event)
- Triple M on-air interview (pre-event) 2 weeks of interviews
- Hit FM – 2 on-air interviews
- WIN – post news coverage
- Channel 7 - post news coverage

The free media exposure we received for our Easter event more than doubled our exposure for the event and strengthened our relationship with the above media outlets.

We were also able to secure a couple of news stories on WIN & Channel 7 with plenty of free air-time on, Triple M, Hit FM and 4am plus plenty of social media exposure.

The following are a couple of examples;

Huge crowd drawn to Kuranda celebration

THE collective screaming of thousands of children as they first laid eyes on the Easter Bunny was deafening.

Melissa Sims and her five children, aged between 15 and seven, were among the 5000 plus crowd that gathered at Kuranda Village for the annual Easter in the Park on Saturday.

And it was the biggest crowd the village had ever seen for an event.

"It was fantastic," the Redlynch mother said.

"The kids loved the egg and spoon races and obviously catching the thousands of eggs that fell from the sky."

Mrs Sims said it was great the event was free.

"It just brought entertainment back to basics - it's not about the money you spend but the time you spend together," she said.

Now in its eighth year, Kuranda Tourism executive officer Marc Sleeman said it was easily the biggest event held in the village.

"I'm on a bit of a high to be honest," Mr Sleeman said. "It's just so rewarding to have such a successful event."

And a great economic boost for the traders in the region.

"People had driven from Townsville and the Burdikin for this," Mr Sleeman said. "The kids have been crazy and loving the chocolate Easter egg drops."

Four separate egg drops, of 3500 chocolate eggs at a time, had the kiddies scrambling for their share.

"We had over 600 kids participating in the egg and spoon races ... and the potato sack races went down a treat as well," Mr Sleeman said.

It was an event that brought people in the area together and reminded them what a special place Kuranda Village was, he said.

"The flow on for the whole Tablelands is quite positive," Mr Sleeman said.

There was enough diverse entertainment to keep Mrs Sims and her children there for more than four hours.

That's Egg-tastic!

That's Egg-tastic!

SUNSHINE, chocolate and loads of fun will be in store for hundreds of Far North children as Kuranda's annual Easter in the Park event makes its return this Saturday.

A whopping 14,000 Easter eggs will rain down on Centenary Park when the Easter Bunny himself makes several "egg drops", delighting youngsters such as this group pictured last year.

Locals are being urged to get a hop along to several events running throughout the day.

Hop along to 'Easter in the Park'

LOADS OF FUN: Easter in the Park promises plenty of excitement this Saturday.

CHOCOLATE lovers, look no further. You don't want to miss an exciting Easter in the Park event at the Village in the Rainforest on Easter Saturday, when 14,000 Easter eggs will rain down on Kuranda.

The village's annual Easter egg drop for Easter in the Park is a highlight for local and visiting children.

The Easter Bunny will drop eggs every hour from 11am to 2pm in Centenary Park.

With each hourly egg drop there will be one golden egg that will be thrown out into the crowd.

The lucky person who catches the golden egg will receive an amazing Kuranda prize package.

Included in the free family fun will be three jumping castles, with one set aside for the youngest kids, kids' games, street performers, a magic show, four face painters, horse and carriage rides, chess and Tablets including the Kuranda Arts Co-op, Kuranda Environment and Kuranda Conservation.

The event has also organised a separate area for youngsters aged five years and under to meet the Easter Bunny for a photo, and to collect their own little bag of Easter eggs.

Deanna Stone-Cross, Ann-Sophie and Jacob McGrath will give an action-packed performance with diabolas, juggling balls, hula hoops and more.

The Kuranda County Kitchen will give live candy-making demonstrations at their Curious Kitchen at 11.30am and 1.30pm. There will also be live music, with Laura Moore playing from 11:30am at The Kuranda Hotel.

Easter in the Park promises plenty of fun for the whole family. The event will run from 10am to 4pm on April 15 at Centenary Park, Kuranda. Entry is free.
