13.1. What is an Impediment

An Impediment is any thing or right or event that prevents or will prevent the Seller complying with the obligation under this Contract to convey the Property to the Buyer on the Settlement Date and on the terms specified in this Contract. An Impediment includes (but is not limited to):

- 13.1.1. an injunction or other order of any court of competent jurisdiction; or

- 13.1.5. any other circumstances whatsoever and howsoever arising.

13.2. Right to terminate

INITIALS

- 13.2.1. provide the Buyer with a transfer of the Property that is capable of immediate registration free of the Encumbrances that must be released under this Contract; and/or
- 13.2.2. otherwise deliver the Property to the Buyer in accordance with the requirements of this Contract.

13.3. Waiver

If the right of termination would arise under Special Condition 13.2.2, and settlement of this Contract would not be a breach of a law or an order of a court, then the Seller must give the Buyer an opportunity to waive the relevant requirement before exercising the right to terminate this Contract.

13.4. Right to extend the Settlement Date

If the Seller is entitled to terminate this Contract under clause 13.2 (or would be, subject to clause 13.3) then the Seller may instead give the Buyer a notice extending the Settlement Date, which will then be the earlier of:

- 13.5.2. A notice under Special Condition 13.4 extending the Settlement Date does not waive or otherwise affect the right of the Seller to give a notice terminating this Contract under Special Condition 13.2.
- 13.5.3. A notice under Special Condition 13.4 extending the Settlement Date can be given multiple times provided that the extended Settlement Date is not later than the Sunset Date.
- 13.5.4. A notice given under Special Condition 13.4.2 is not a representation that the Impediment is removed and is not a waiver of the Seller's right to terminate under Special Condition 13.2

13.6. No claims by Buyers

The Buyer cannot make any claim under this Contract or representation or warranty because the Seller terminates this Contract under clause 13.2, has extended the Settlement Date under clause 13.4 or, because of an Impediment, is unable to:
