

Mapping our Anzac History

Our Photo Gallery

*Farewelling war volunteers at the Mareeba Train Station
c. 1915-1917. Photo: Mareeba Historical Society*

*Boys and girls dressed up as soldiers at Irvinebank c. 1917
Photo: State Library of Queensland*

*Charles Wilfred Willis from Chillagoe
Photo: State Library of Queensland*

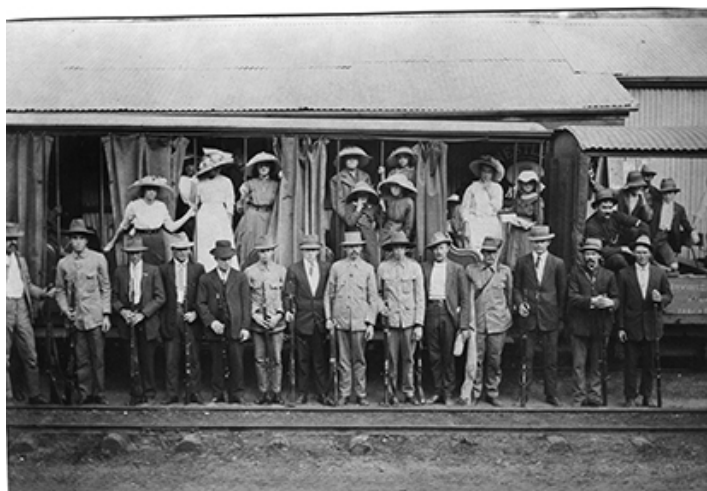

*Wolfram Victory March 1918
Photo: Mareeba Historical Society*

Mapping our Anzac History

John Joseph Owens from Mareeba
Photo: Cairns Historical Society

Stannary Hills Tramway Station c. 1914-1918
Photo: Cairns Historical Society

Queensland Field Artillery Recruits
Photo: Eacham Historical Society

Watsonville group of volunteers. Back L-R: Willie Rowlands and Alfred Morris. Front L-R: Ed Kemp, Victor Morris, George Rowlands.
Photo: Cairns Historical Society

John 'Jack' Charles Condon from Chillagoe
Photo: Chillagoe Historical Society

Mapping our Anzac History

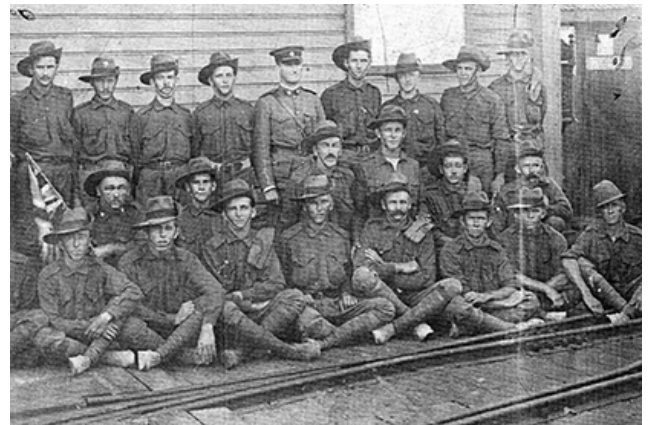

Stannary Hills Tramway Station c. 1914-1918
Photo: Cairns Historical Society

Soldiers with a camouflaged tank made for an early Anzac Day ceremony in Atherton c. 1920
Photo: State Library of Queensland

Hugh Savage from Mareeba
Photo: Mareeba Historical Society

Irvinebank soldiers Harry Kirkman (middle 2nd from left), Charlie Arbouin (middle 3rd from right) and William Spiers (back row far right) in Cairns
Photo: Loudoun House Museum

Martin Ernest Markham from Chillagoe
Photo: Chillagoe Historical Society

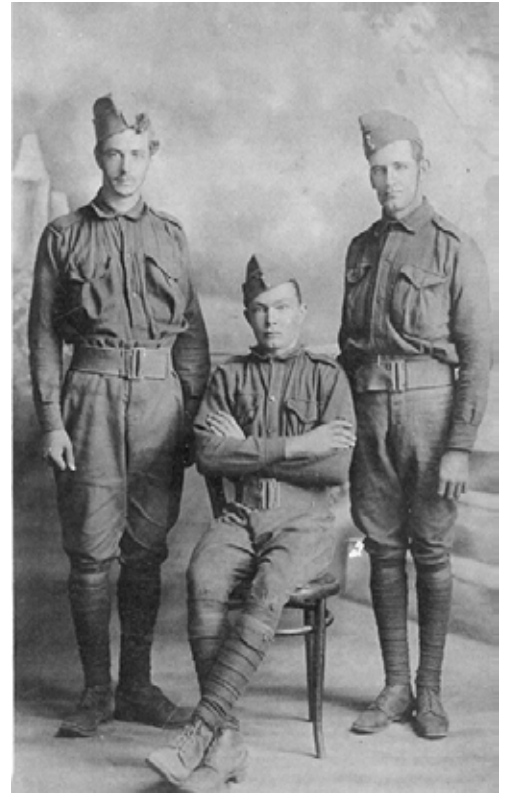

Mapping our Anzac History

Anzac Parade Mareeba 1918
Photo: Mareeba Heritage Centre

Atherton Tablelands recruits to the Queensland Field Artillery unit
Photo: Eacham Historical Society

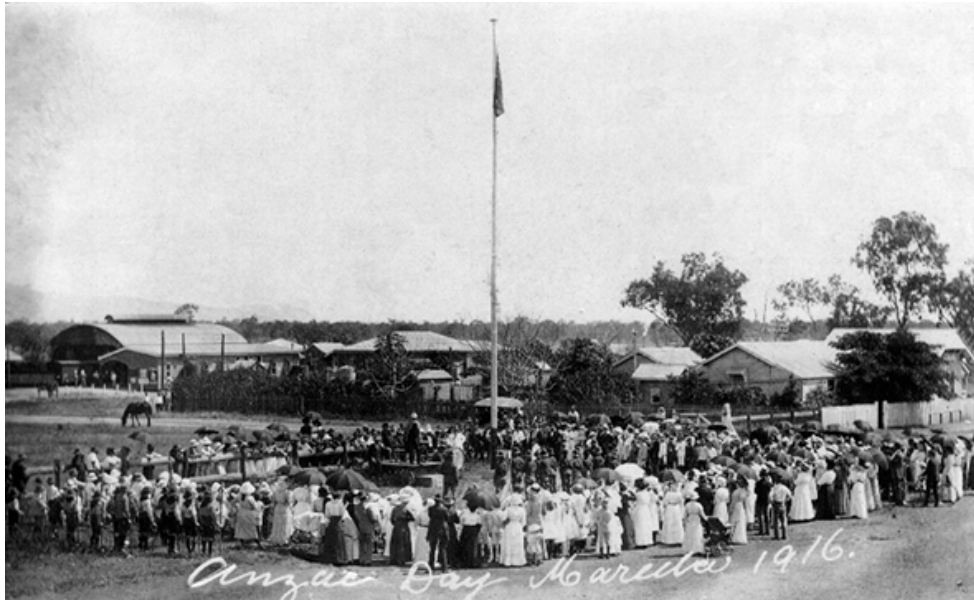

Stannary Hills or Irvinebank soldiers with one of the Slatcher boys in the centre
Photo: Cairns Historical Society

Mareeba cenotaph 1938
Photo: Cairns Historical Society

Mapping our Anzac History

First Anzac Day held in Mareeba 1916
Photo: Mareeba Heritage Centre

Volunteers from the Watsonville and Herberton area 1916
Photo: Cairns Historical Society

Anzac Parade on Main Street Atherton c. 1919
Photo: State Library of Queensland