Reason for obtaining approval for keeping of excess animals and/or reason for amendment to original approval

Please detail the reason why you are obtaining approval for keeping excess animals, i.e. what are the circumstances that have led to the situation. Note: this application does not allow the land in question to be used for the purpose of a breeding, boarding kennel or any commercial enterprise involving animals. Such activities require town planning development approval.

MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR KEEPING ANIMALS

Animals must be kept in accordance with the requirements of any existing code of practice.

- 1) The person keeping the animal must ensure that –
 - a) The animal does not:
 - i) Cause a nuisance; or
 - ii) Expose the health and safety of other persons and animals to significant risk; or
 - iii) Create a reasonable apprehension in the minds of other persons of a significant risk to health and safety of persons, other animals or that animal; and
 - b) Wastewaters from enclosures are drained in a nuisance free manner and that run-off is kept off adjoining land; and
 - c) Excreta, food scraps, and other material that is, or is likely to become, offensive is collected at least once in each day and, if not immediately disposed of, is kept in a fly proof container; and
 - d) Any enclosure in which an animal is kept in a clean and sanitary condition, free from dust and odour and properly maintained in an aesthetically acceptable condition; and
 - e) The area available to the animal kept on the premises is appropriately sized so that the animal can be effectively and comfortably kept; and
 - f) Any animal food is stored in an impervious fly proof and vermin proof receptacle or in an impervious fly proof and vermin proof storeroom facility; and
 - g) All animals kept on the premises are provided with and have access to adequate shelter, drinking water and appropriate food; and
 - h) Any enclosure used for the purpose of keeping an animal is thoroughly cleaned each week and effectively treated with an insecticide at least twice a year; and
 - i) Upon discovering the existence of a dead animal, immediately dispose of the remains of the dead animal so as not to cause a nuisance. The remains must not be disposed of on or in a public place.
- 2) For subsection 1(a)(i), a nuisance occurs if an authorised officer considers there is sufficient evidence that people in nearby properties are being affected by the activity of the offending animal.
