CONDITIONS

1) The following are the conditions that must be imposed on an approval²

- ensure that the existing dwelling house situated on the property will remain on the property during the term of the approval;
- ensure that the sanitary and laundry facilities are only used in the existing dwelling or in the temporary accommodation;
- not dispose of, and ensure that no other person disposes of, any blackwater and/or greywater from the use of the temporary accommodation on the ground or in any other way, other than as lawfully permitted for the disposal of such blackwater or greywater;
- ensure that the temporary accommodation remains moveable at all times and must not be permanently affixed to the ground or other structure;

Example

The wheels of the caravan must not be removed, so that the caravan can be removed when required.

- ensure that the condition of the temporary accommodation is appropriately maintained to prevent deterioration and keep it in good order and repair;
- ensure that the temporary home is not, and does not become, unsightly or unhygienic;
- ensure that the separation and set back distances between the approved placement of the temporary accommodation and property boundaries is maintained as specified in the approval;
- ensure that there is no commercial arrangement, or consideration, that passes between the applicant and the property owner for the applicant to use the temporary accommodation;
- provide all evidence reasonably requested by an authorised person to enable the authorised person to be satisfied that there is no commercial arrangement or other consideration that passes between the approval holder and the property owner for the use of the temporary accommodation, when requested throughout the term of the approval;
- ensure that only the person, or persons, including the specified number of people, approved pursuant to the approval stay in the temporary accommodation;
- ensure that only the temporary accommodation approved by the local government and specified in the approval is used on the property;
- ensure that the period approved for the temporary accommodation to be used on the property is only used for that period;
- ensure that on the expiry of the approval, the temporary accommodation is removed from the property on which it was located;
- ensure that any lighting used in or as part of the temporary accommodation is angled or shaded in such a manner so that the light does not cause an unreasonable nuisance in the opinion of an authorised person; and
- ensure that the temporary accommodation does not detrimentally affect the amenity of neighbouring properties or create an unreasonable nuisance, including noise and odour, in the opinion of an authorised person.

The following are conditions that will ordinarily be imposed on approvals³

- ensure that water intended for use for domestic purposes is from an approved water source;
- maintain an adequate and continuous supply of water to all toilet, bathroom, kitchen, laundry and drinking water facilities that form part of the temporary home;
- maintain all water supply connections in accordance with applicable legislative requirements; and
- any other condition the local government considers is reasonably necessary to ensure the protection of public health, safety and/or amenity is maintained by the approval holder in using the temporary accommodation.
